Files: public/images/ENGINEERING.jpg
public/images/Engineering-Services.jpg
(same pixel data copied to both paths)

Created: 11 September 2026

Project: umitech-marine-rebuild (UMITECH MARINE website)

Origin: AI-generated image, created in Cursor from a written prompt for the homepage Engineering services card and the Services page Engineering practice section.

This is NOT a stock photograph.

It was not downloaded from Unsplash, Pexels, Pixabay, Shutterstock, Adobe Stock, Getty Images, or any other stock library.

There is no photographer, model-release number, or stock invoice.

1. What this notice is

This file records how ENGINEERING.jpg was made and grants the project owner permission to use it on the UMITTECH MARINE website, to the extent Cursor's terms for generated images allow that use.

This notice does not replace Cursor's Terms of Service.

Those terms control what you may do with generated images.

This notice does not create rights that Cursor did not grant.

2. Grant (project use)

The owner of this repository may:

- display the image on umitech.co.jp and related UMITTECH MARINE sites
- include it in static exports, deploys, and backups of this project
- crop, compress, or resize it for web use
- use ENGINEERING.jpg on the homepage services grid and Engineering-Services.jpg on the Services Engineering section (identical still)

The owner may not:

- sell the image as a stock photo
- claim a third-party stock license (Unsplash, Getty, etc.)
- claim real people or workers appear in the scene (there are none;
the scene is AI-generated)
- claim the machinery depicts a specific branded product or maker

3. Credit

No photographer credit is required.

Optional credit: "AI-generated image for UMITTECH MARINE."

4. No warranty

The image is provided as-is. It may contain artefacts or incidental resemblance to real equipment by chance.

The project owner is responsible for checking Cursor's current terms and for any legal review before public use.

5. Not legal advice

This is a project record, not a certificate from a stock agency and not legal advice. For a licensed stock photo with an invoice, download from a stock library instead.
